

Twelve Card Tarot Report

We can see our life trend by the help of Twelve Tarot card spread Report.

I will draw Twelve Cards for you after shuffling the cards. Every Single Card will show about your life for example your personality, Money status, about initiative, home, peace, emotions, marriage, inheritance, destiny, career, gains and much more.

Now I begin your Twelve Tarot Card Report. I am drawing your cards now. I will show you the cards next to the readings

Twelve Card Spread

Twelve Cards as they got open.

Twelve Cards Interpretation

First Card: Reverse Sun

First Card shows your personality, as this is most powerful card in the tarot deck; it shows that you are very influential person with strong character and strongly built.

When ever this card comes into first position the person is fun loving and tension free kind of person. Since this card is reverse it has loose some of its positive qualities, which shows that you are over stress out and you are taking much burden on your self and this is draining out your vital energy.

This card also tells you that you have much potential in your self but it is yet to be recognized.

Sun is the card which some time represents life partner and marriage due to presence of sun flowers as they are the symbol of partner. This means that you could recognize your true personality after you got married. And your source of power is your life partner.

Recommendation: Slow down, do appreciate your self

Second Card: Reverse Three of Cups

Cups represent Emotions in the tarot Deck and Second Position reveals how will your money position in life. Here on the second position I got three of cups which are reversed, since you can see that there are three people who are enjoying and in celebration mode. This means your Money inflow will be good in life. Since cups have been related to your second position of tarot card it shows that you will be mostly concern for your family and you will earn for them, you give much importance to financial security and you will manage money in better way. Since this card is reverse, it indicates that you have not reached the ultimate goal and it has yet to come and yes it will come. You will be getting very good position in terms of money after two years in the Year 2010.

Recommendation: Do not give much importance to Money as Money will remain with you always.

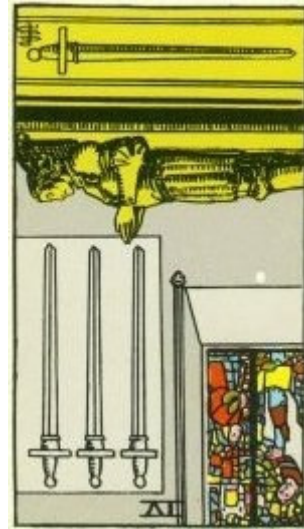

Third Card: Reverse Four of Swords

Third position represents your initiative in life and it shows that you have been feeling that some one is holding you up; every time you take initiative for any thing it goes in wrong direction.

You should be careful and never take initiative as it will lead you to disgrace and humiliation. Since this card is reversed it shows that if you do not take initiative you will get benefit, and you will achieve your desire soon.

Third place is also related to your neighbors and it shows that every time you help them you get into trouble.

Recommendation: Develop Patience which will give you push to reach to your Goals

Fourth Card: The Chariot

Fourth position is very important Position as it represents Home, peace of mind, Property, Mother.

One can see a prince riding a chariot driven by two sphinxes , which represents that there will be always movement from home or you have to leave your home land and stay away to some different country.

You are very strong in your mind, nothing disturbs your peace of mind and there is always harmony in your home. You will possess good property and vehicle and live luxury life. Your Mother will be very strong personality, you may have done very well academically and outshine other students.

Over all this is very good card for fourth position

Recommendation: Invest in Property, success is sure sort.

Fifth Card: Four of Pentacle

Fifth position represents your emotions, love life, children, and speculation.

Here you can see a man holding Four pentacles very tightly as if things will go astray from him, same rules with your emotions, you are very weak in your emotions and never show off, It also shows that some one may have hurt emotionally in past or an unsuccessful love affair. It shows difficulties to children or your over attention towards them can hinder their life. Gambling or any kind of speculation does not suit you. Positive thing of this card is that you have able to control your emotions and able to learn the hard way how to deal with people.

Recommendation: Do not stick to your own rules, Try to listen to others also, Give respect to others.

Sixth Card: Reverse Six of Wands

Sixth position represents health and service to others. It relates to the individual's employment and attitude to subordinates, superiors and work colleagues, anxieties, debt, diseases, enemies, lawsuits. Here we can see that a person is riding a horse as it is a celebration time and other are also following along with, him.

This shows that you will overcome obstructions and hurdles in your career the hurdles which come from coordinators. You will be a good Team leader and work for betterment of others.

Where ever you will join you will excel, but this is a reverse card which takes away some of the positive values, it means that you will constantly face hurdles from your coordinators where ever you work.

You will fear of falling ill or health will be always concern for you, May be you will not get ill so early but still there will be a tendency to get ill sooner or later, they will be small ailments which will be cured in one or two days, this means you will never get a grief illness in life.

You will able to pay your debts easily, and there will be no Law suits against you ever in the life. You will get full support from your superiors.

Over all this is good card and be careful with your subordinates as they always ready to pull you down.

Recommendation: Take things easy, let them settle them self. Ever face any hindrance to not fight with let it wash out with time.

Seventh Card: Reversed Empress

Seventh Position card rules partnership, whether business or personal. Marriage, spouse or close relationships (other than relatives), social life, Profession in foreign land.

Empress is very good card in seventh position, it shows good marriage, Abundance and Growth after marriage. Good companionship, Helping partner.

Since this is a reversed card it has loose some of its good qualities, It shows that there has been struggle for the wife and she may have faced hardship after marriage.

This position shows your social life also, it indicates that you are an aloof kind of person and does not believe in socializing. It also shows that there may be much struggle and uncertainty if one goes to foreign land to work. Business is not suitable for you if you go for a business you have to face lot of hardship and may loose your prestige.

Recommendation: Wearing an Emerald Gem stone will help to boost your good luck in foreign land, and this will also improve your social life.

Eighth Card: Reversed Nine of Cups

Signifies death, wills, loans, legacies, and other people's money. House of transformation and spiritual regeneration and therefore concerns sex, birth, death, rebirth, the occult subjects attitude to such matters. Accidents, bankruptcy, excretory organs, external sexual organs, mystery any thing hidden, mines, research work, bond between husband and wife.

This card signify that you have all the merits and you should just enjoy your time by watching them grow, It shows Long Age, Inheritance, all loans paid on time, slowly you are moving on your right path towards spiritual enlighten, there is always protection from Accidents or any misshapen in life.

Since this is a reversed card you should not go into any kind of research work, you should be very careful if you want to give loan to some one because some time there would be chances that the person won't give you back your money. Here this card also shows that your parents may have loose some kind of inheritance. This card shows that you should not take any initiative in relation to learn occult subjects.

Recommendation: Try to spend more time with your self leave your issues away and just relax without thinking of past or future.

Ninth Card: Reverse King of Cups

Ninth card denotes the higher mind, religion, philosophy, the law, long journeys and sea voyages. It relates to higher education, places of learning, Father and destiny.

In this card we can see a King surrounding with sea where one can see a ship and a dolphin, This indicates that your destiny is to travel abroad and most of your life you will live in foreign countries.

Since this is a reversed card it shows that there have been lots of difficulties in initial years. But you able to cope them well, This card also shows your father, it shows that your father have started his life from zero and able to reach to much higher position in life, This also shows that your father is an highly emotional and sensitive man.

Over all this is a good card and it shows that you will get good luck overseas.

Tenth Card: The Lovers

Tenth position is very important position in an individual life; it shows his karma and profession.

Here we can see an angel is blessing a couple, which means that you will be having a smooth steady career where you will able to reach top position in your career. You will able to know your field from every aspect. This card shows that you will never be out of job in your life and you will bring good luck to those for whom you will work for.

Eleventh Card: Reversed Page of Swords

Eleventh position is what we reap in our life, it is gains, friends and social network.

Here we can see a young man trying to fight a storm with a sword. A sword means difficulties and challenges, since this is card of gains, it means that every thing you plans or hope for get ruined due to unforeseen factors. It also shows that you will get difficulties from your good friends, or it shows that you do not have any friend and for you to get along with some one is very difficult.

Recommendation : Try to visualize a still lake, let this be your meditation do visualize the still lake before you go to bed.

Twelfth Card: Reversed Five of Pentacles

Twelfth position is rules by losses in life

Since here it is an reversed card where we can see a couple where a man is limping traveling some where. Since the picture is not so good it is good card to have on this position. It shows that there will be no big losses in life and your life will be a smooth one. It is like negative card in negative house turns positive.

If you have any queries or doubts about these card readings write to me at tarun@occultwizard.com